Our recommendations

Ten best things to do in Tirana

Tirana is a city changing every day. It is a modern and dynamic city where more than half of the Albanian population is concentrated. It is like a metropolis, with more than 130 nationalities living. Tirana is the city of students, events, and big celebrations and the center of all

Wine and raki Tour in Tirana

As a typical Mediterranean country, our country has all the conditions for cultivating vines. Archaeological discoveries have made Albania one of the most ancient centers of wine cultivation. This tour will take you to the location where you will learn about the Albanians in the region and the diaspora. Here are the ten best things to do in Tirana. More history of vineyards, autochthonous grapes, and how Albanian wine is produced. More

Learn folk dance of Tirana

Albania is exceptionally rich in folklore. Music and costumes differ not only from north to south but also from one village to another. For foreigners, this variety of dances and costumes, so different and with so many beautiful stories to tell, is of great interest. In this tour, we will learn five main dances: Tirana, Napoleon, the Dance of Tropoje, Kukesi, and South Pogoniste. more.

Experience Tirana like a local

The tour starts with a coffee and raki at Tradita Popullore, where you will find all the traditional costumes of regions of Albania. You are free to choose the costume you like to wear and listen to the origin and details of the traditional dress. We will continue the experience by learning from locals, especially from artisans. Then with a tour of the city and a traditional delicious lunch more
